

M.O.S. REFLECTIONS

1993 - 1994

Mother Of Sorrows

In Dedication to Mr. Thomas Bahr

A man who teaches, motivates, and inspires.

A man who is concerned with every student and faculty member.

*A man who not only cares and loves others,
But others care for and love him, too.*

*Thank you for four great years-
We love you and will miss you!*

Best Wishes,

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A multitude of thanks is extended to the many students who contributed so much in putting together our 1993-1994 issue of Reflections. Spending countless hours after school, our editors this year were unparalleled in their dedication, work ethic, and willingness to do anything asked of them in creating the Yearbook - it was truly a privilege and joy to work with them. Much gratitude also goes out to the parents, faculty, and all those who so generously supported our efforts through monetary contributions, film donations, and a myriad of other ways - we could never do it without you! Thank you also to Mrs. Carol Gutmann, Mrs. Nancy Banaszewski, Mrs. Jeanne King, and Mrs. Barb Bell for their able assistance in monitoring the sales aspect of the Yearbook. Our cover design this year was due to the efforts and talents of Heather Trice, Kristy Kulas, and Mrs. Liza Otto - our hats are off to you, ladies! Special thanks, too, to Megan Benjamin for her original and touching words in our dedication. The helpfulness and advice of Mr. Eric Ludeman, our advisor from Jostens, is always appreciated.

I join the entire Yearbook Staff in hopes that Reflections 1993-1994 will be a source of enjoyment for you.

Mrs. Sandy Compisi
